WOMEN TO LEARN ROACOLL ELHICS

Union Men Plan Convention to Implant Spirit of Unionism.

'n order that the wives, mothers and other women relatives of union work-men in Washington may have an opportunity to get a fair insight into unionism and the significance of a boycott, a convention for their especial benefit is being planned.

A resolution calling for this convention was adopted last night by Central Labor Union.

tion was adopted last night by Central Labor Union.

Samuel DeNedrey, secretary of the central body, who introduced the resolution, said:

"We men agree not to buy a certain article, yet those who really spend our money never stop to think of unionizing when it comes to bargain hunting, and we find ourselves eating boycotted food and wearing non-union clothes. If the women could be taught properly in this particular our cause would be benefited."

The fact of the Bucks company deserting the ranks of the American Man-Association and making friends with labor by agreeing to con-duct a "closed shop," is likely to cause other big plants to follow suit within the near future, is the way Mr. Gomp ers views the pact.

He declared that by being friendly with labor more efficient workmen will with labor more efficient workmen will be employed and better conditions will exist for all concerned.

Mr. Gompers said that officers of the Bucks company will in a few weeks confer with a committee representing the American Federation of Labor, for the purpose of arranging in detail the wage scale for the plant. By the terms of the agreement the scale is to be fixed according to the average wage paid in other union plants.
